POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

PROGRAM ASSISTANT

Humanities Guåhan (HG) is currently accepting applications for the part-time position of Program Assistant to implement a diverse range of public humanities programs and projects that serve the Guåhan community.

A master's degree or undergraduate degree in a humanities discipline or related field is preferred. Experience with educational community-based programs is required. Knowledge of Guåhan's history and the island's indigenous people and diverse ethnic and cultural communities is important. The Program Assistant is expected to be collaborative, adaptable, and a highly organized individual. Teaching and/or community outreach experience is a plus. Excellent written and oral communication skills are essential, as is the ability to work with a small team of professional staff.

Please send a letter of application and resume with the names and contact information of three references to Dr. Kimberlee Kihleng at kkihleng@humanitiesguahan.org. For additional inquiries, please email info@humanitiesguahan.org. The application deadline is Friday, April 14 by 5:00 p.m. ChST.

Humanities Guåhan is an independent nonprofit organization affiliated with the National Endowment for the Humanities. HG presents and supports public humanities programs for the people of Guåhan, including interpretive exhibitions, family literacy, documentary films with discussion, cultural workshops and performances, educator and student workshops, literary tours, online oral histories and publications, community conversations and food democracy tours.
